CORRESPONDENCE

WALNUT WELLS.

Boas Bowden, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. J. A. Denton, here during the past few weeks, has returned to his home in the Imperial Valley, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Krebaum motored over to El Paso on the 16th, where they expect to place their son, Allan, in school. Mrs. Krebaum will remain in El Paso for an indefinite period.

The fall roundups are now on and all the boys are on the range. Cattle are fat and prospects look good.

The dance given at the Phelps residence on Friday night was well attended and all report a pleasant time.

Mrs. Laura Massey has been compelled to go to El Paso, where she has undergone an operation for a trouble of long standing.

M. C. Evans is putting lumber on the ground for an addition to his residence near Dog Springs.

CATTLE PUT ON GILA RANGE.

About three thousand head of cattle were put on the range on the south side of the Gila river, with headquarters near Frank Harper's, by the San Carlos Cattle Company of San Carlos, Mexico. The cattle arrived here Tuesday and Wednesday and were managed by William Knox who gathered together every cow-puncher in this section to help in moving the stock.

SECTION HOMESTEAD

Reports are current that the 640 acre homestead bill has passed the senate and is now a law. The Western Liberal is advised by the Las Cruces land office that no notification has ever been received by them to this effect and that should the bill become a law it will be some months yet before it is perfected and due notice will be given the public.

The local land office is already supplied with blanks, petitions for designation, etc., for use at the earliest moment after the law is in effect.

WILL BUILD FINE RANCH HOME.

Work was begun this week at the homestead of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hunter, southeast of town, in the erection of a beautiful bungalow. The walls will be made of adobe and will be finished first class inside and out.
William McSwain is doing the work.

FOUR BIG EVENTS IN ONE

That the International Farm Congress (the Dry-Farming Congress) will be staged amid lively surroundings and in good company this year is realized when it is known that the lively city of El Paso, Texas, the center of United States army life and the pivotal point in international relations between the United States and Mexico, has been selected as the place of meeting.

Just what the conditions along the border will be in October cannot be exactly foretold at this time, but it is certain that there will be many thousands of Uncle Sam's soldiers at El Paso, and that it will be perfectly safe for everybody to go there and view the stirring scenes.

The International Soil-Products Exposition, which is held under the management of the Farm Congress, will open at El Paso on October 14, and continue ten days. This Exposition, together with the Congress, was held at Denver last year, and at Wichita in 1914. It is recognized as the greatest show of its class in the world.

The Elephant Butte Dam, the largest irrigation dam in the world, will be dedicated just prior to the opening of the Exposition, by President Woodrow Wilson.

The International Irrigation Congress will hold a three days' session at El Paso, beginning October 16 with an opening session at the Elephant Butte dam on October 14.

The International Dry-Farming Congress will meet October 19, 20 and 21.
Thus, within the period of October 14 to 24, three of the big events of the year will be staged at El Paso, with the fourth, the Elephant Butte dedication, at the same time, and close enough for everybody to attend.

AN ADMINISTRATION TOO CONTENT WITH LEIS- URELY DISCUSSION.

I do not put life and property on the same footing, but the Administration has not only been remiss with respect to the protection of American lives; it has been remiss with respect to the protection of American property and American commerce. It has been too much disposed to be content with leisurely discussion.—From Mr.
Hughes' speech of acceptance.

No Wonder.
"I never came across a man so lacking in foresight as Jones."
"But you must make allowance for that. He used to be employed in the weather office."

Going Him One Better.
"My ancestors came over in the Mayflower," remarked the man who prided himself on his pedigree.
"That's nothing," growled the plebeian. "Mine sailed in the ark."

MANY CASES HEARD WEDNESDAY

The docket of the hall of justice in Lordsburg was booked up to capacity Wednesday when a number of cases were tried, all ending in the defendants being bound over awaiting the action of the grand jury.

The most important was the case of Raul Carillo, Jose Morlo and Ramos Martinez, charged with the murder of Grover C.
Stevenson on September 18 near Wilma, N. M. Morlo and Martinez would not testify but Carrillo turned state's evidence giving facts which may result in the conviction of the other two men.
Carillo jumped from the train and did not know who fired the shot that killed the brakeman.
He did, however, identify the men as the ones with him in the ore car. One of the four implicated men escaped into Mexico from El Paso after evading officers.

S. P. Officer Skidmore, who arrested the trio and brakeman Fred Wilson were important witnesses. The Mexicans were given over to the action of the grand jury.

In the case of the State vs. J.
W. Gould, charged with assault with a deadly weapon upon A.C.
McDonald growing out of a street fight several weeks ago when Mr.
Gould was city marshal and interfered in a fight in front of the Dominoo saloon. He was given over to the grand jury.

Scott Grantham was arraigned for the theft of a revolver from the Vendome hotel, the property of J. Burtch. Grantham pleaded guilty. Case to the grand jury.

Jose Ortega was also given to the grand jury, charged with discharging fire arms in the settlement of Steins, N. M.

Lucis Pena, also of Steins, pleaded guilty to having shot at Mrs. Paula Alvarado and was given to the grand jury. Pena explained that he only shot at Mrs. Paula Alvarado to scare her and not with intent to kill.

Assistant district attorney J.
S. Vaught was here from Deming attending to all of the above cases. C. W. Marsalis was the presiding justice.

MR. HUGHES HAS EXPLODED THE "KEPT-US-OUT-OF-WAR" ARGUMENT.

Mr. Hughes' attack upon the "kept-us-out-of-war" argument has aroused a story of enthusiasm.

"Kept us out of war" he demands.
"Why, there were nineteen men—good American soldiers, shot down at Vera Cruz, and many Mexicans were killed by our men. That was war. Moreover, it was a very ignoble war. I have heard three explanations of the Vera Cruz move.

"First, it was explained that it was made in order to compel somebody to salute the flag—somebody who had insulted us. But the flag was not saluted and has not been to this day.
Then it was said that the salute was not what we sought, but to prevent the landing of a boatload of ammunition intended for Huerta. The ammunition, landed, however, and it has been shown that it reached Huerta in due season without interference on our part.

"When that reason was shown to be untenable, a third one—possibly the real one—finally was advanced.
It was said that our seizure of Vera Cruz was a move to compel the retirement of Huerta. It seems possible that this is true, although we had promised the Mexicans that we would not interfere in their affairs and told them more than once that we wanted them to handle their own affairs.

"That is why the Mexicans could not understand us and that is why they show little faith in our promises."

"WORDS, OR DEEDS?"

"If anything in this campaign is real it is that we are now facing the question whether we want words or whether we want deeds; whether we want that which is written and spoken, or whether we want American action in the interests of the American people, worthy of the American name, maintaining the prosperity of the United States."—From Mr. Hughes' speech at Chicago.

WANTS AN EFFECTIVE SYS- TEM OF RURAL CREDITS.

We propose to promote by every practicable means our agricultural interests, and we include in this program an effective system of rural credits. We favor the wise conservation of our natural resources. We desire not only that they shall be safeguarded, but that they shall be adequately developed and used to the utmost public advantage.—From Mr. Hughes' speech of acceptance.

He Knew It Was There.

Publisher—I have read your manuscript and will publish it. I believe the book is destined to fill a long-felt want.

Author (on the verge of starvation) —I am glad to hear you say so. By the way, could you advance me $10?

Publisher—Certainly. But what do you intend to use it for?

Author—I am anxious to begin filling that "long-felt want."

Some Salesman.
"I can see at a glance, madam," said he, "that you would not be interested in the preparation I am selling, except possibly as a gift to some of your neighbors."
"What are you selling?" she inquired with interest.
"A facial beauty preparation, madam," he replied.—Judge.

THE COMPELLING PERORA- TION TO MR. HUGHES' ACCEPTANCE SPEECH.

We live in a fateful hour. In a true sense, the contest for the preservation of the Nation is never ended. We must still be imbued with the spirit of heroic sacrifice which gave us our country and brought us safely through the days of civil war.
We renew our pledge to the ancient ideals of individual liberty, of opportunity denied to none because of race or creed, of unswerving loyalty. We have a vision of America prepared and secure; strong and just; equal to her tasks; an exemplar of the capacity and efficiency of a free people. I endorse the platform adopted by the Convention and accept its nomination.

The Republican Central Committee on Saturday, Sept. 23, 1916 Tendered to

THE SANTA FE NEW MEXICAN
(a daily newspaper at Santa Fe)

A one-half-page advertisement to be paid for at a rate previously quoted to the committee by that newspaper for display advertising.
The New Mexican refused to publish this advertisement on the flimsy pretext that it contained libelous matter.

The advertisement contained no libelous matter. Every political advertisement issued by the Republican State Committee is first passed upon by competent legal counsel, to insure it makes no libelous statement. This is done for the protection of the newspapers printing these advertisements, and to meet the rigid requirement of the Republican State Committee, that every Republican statement in this campaign be the exact truth. This advertisement had been so considered and passed upon for publication as an exact statement of facts.

This advertisement contained a simple statement of facts sworn to by personal appointees and friends of Governor William C. Mc-Donald tending to prove that Governor McDonald and Howell Ernest, then State Bank Examiner, did not properly protect the interests of the 600 depositors who lost in the wrecking of the First State Bank at Las Cruces.

The New Mexican is supporting the gubernatorial twins, Mc-Donald and De Baca. Daily it prints libelous matter directed against the candidates of the Republican state ticket. It does not fear libel suits, for its owner with his millions, can stand them.

But the Santa Fe New Mexican will not print the truth even at advertising display rates.

The Santa Fe New Mexican refuses to present any but one side in this campaign and that one side distorted.

The Republican State Committee considers it worth the money this advertisement costs to present this fact to the readers of the Santa Fe New Mexican who wish a fair, intelligent and honest understanding of the men and issues in this election campaign.

You cannot rely on or trust a newspaper which refuses to print the truth.
